

Snapshot Day 10/2/07
Other Observations

RM Site

Time

Other Observations

RM 133

9:30 AM Mature eagle flying over west shore

11:30 AM Mature eagle flying over west shore

RM 127

Evidence of mussels
gulls

RM 112

osprey

RM 103

first time caught hogchokers!

RM 96.4

flock of geese
peregrine falcon
mature bald eagle catching a fish & flying off juvenile bald eagle scavenging for fish in the mud flats
first time caught hogchokers!
Eels were a big hit with the students

RM 92

Great Blue Heron
Ring Billed Gulls
Kayakers & personal watercraft

RM 78

Watched an osprey repeatedly dive for fish in the bay just north of the park. On its 4th dive it carried away a fish

RM 76

In our 3rd seine pulled up a bright orange construction cone, also wood pilings

RM 61

Lots of geese
fish jumping (carp)
osprey

RM 39.5

Banks changed by Native Americans oyster shell piles; bricks from brick factories making the area a peninsula not an island; cabins being built & torn down

Snapshot Day 10/2/07
Other Observations

Osprey
Geese

RM 28 There is a fascination "Stratification Study" on this site's data sheet

RM25 Large amount of monarch butterflies on the pier today - 28 at one time travelled through the seining area at one time

RM 18.5 Throughout the day we noticed several Monarch butterflies. There were also Canada geese in the river and chipmunks scurrying on the bank by the picnic facilities. There were several fishermen using the boat marina area to fish from. One was setting out crab traps.

Harlem 14 Lots of ducks, also phragmites in the marsh

Harlem 13 Jellyfish, adult & baby crabs, crab shells, oysters, waterbugs, fish, Canadian geese, bees, flies, sponges, tadpoles, butterflies, flock of geese

RM 4 SB Seagulls, leaves, feathers in the water

RM 2.5 CS_Cal butterfly and seagulls

East RM4 Oysters from Solar One's Oyster Bank