

Earthquake Wave Animation Demos

A series of animations will be shown continuously throughout the day demonstrating various waves that are generated in earthquakes such as compressional (P-waves), shear (S-waves), surface waves (Love and Rayleigh), and normal modes of oscillation. Informal explanations will be given at the top of each hour as well as the opportunity to ask questions.

Seismology Seminar Room 10 am to 4 pm.