

The Portland Library
Presents:
Boldest and Most Beautiful:
The Traprock Ridgeland of the Connecticut Valley
by
Peter M. LeTourneau, Ph.D

Come learn about the ecology, history, and art of our unique volcanic landscapes, and the role the traprock ridges played in establishing the American identity in the 19th century. Also hear spooky legends, and tales of sorrow, disasters, and celebration!

Monday August 12, 2013
6:30 pm Portland Town Library
20 Freestone Ave, Portland, Connecticut
For info call: 860-342-6770
or visit: www.PortlandLibraryCT.org